Are you a student under the age of 25?
Enter for your chance to win

$5,000 CASH PRIZE

Premier’s ICT Mobility Award

Proudly supported by the Tasmanian Premier David Bartlett MP and TAS ICT

Mobile applications......
the next big thing

Inspiring the future mobile application developers of Tasmania TASICT and Premier David Bartlett have started the search to find the next generation of technology talent in Tasmania. State-wide students under the age of 25 are called to enter the Premier’s mobile application awards.

Entries close Monday 15th November.
Entry forms available by contacting Jessie Philp at jessie@necessarygroup.com

Please see over page for Terms and Conditions.
Terms & Conditions

Competition dates
- The competition is open now. Entry forms must be received by midnight on Monday 15th November 2010 at 5.00pm.
- Entries received after closing date will not be accepted.
- Winners will be contacted by telephone prior to Friday 19th November.
- Three finalists will be selected to attend the Gala Awards Ceremony on Friday 26th November at 6.30pm at the Hotel Grand Chancellor, Hobart.

Entry Categories / Judging Criteria
- Usefulness to Tasmanians – will this be of value to the community?
- Design and development – the presentation and the code.
- Innovation - the uniqueness and innovation demonstrated.
- Useability including accessibility – is it easy to use?

Entrant Criteria
While ideas and technical capabilities play a role in this competition we are looking for any application that provides a new and useful service or information for Tasmanians. Entrants warrant that all application and idea entries:

- "Must be studying and under the age of 25 on the 26th November 2010.
- Application must work on a mobile phone device.
- Do not infringe copyright – Entrants must have appropriate approval for all data used. Use of third party data must comply with any and all applicable legal restrictions, including copyright.
- Do not infringe Intellectual Property – only submit your own work, or work that you have permission to use. Ensure to attribute ownership to material wherever appropriate.
- Not operating a commercial organisation or have commercial endorsement.
- Must be new and unpublished – applications in use prior to the competition launch date will not be accepted.
- Entrants are permitted to make more than one submission.
- The organisers may wish to verify the eligibility of entries.
- All entries and comments on this website are subject to moderation. Entries or comments may be rejected or removed if, in the view of the competition organisers, the entries:
  - Contain offensive language
  - Are defamatory towards any individual or organisation.
  - Contain personal, private or sensitive information.
  - Are unlawful or violate an individual’s rights.
  - Are not relevant to the competition.

The organisers may disqualify any entrant for unauthorised manipulation or tampering with the entry process or for submitting an entry, which is not in accordance Entrant Criteria.

Who can apply?
The competition is open to Tasmanian residents only. A valid Tasmanian postal address must be submitted with each entry.

Entries can be submitted by individuals or groups. Group entries should be aware that all entrants must reside in Tasmania.

Competition organisers, judges and their immediate families are not eligible.

Additional use
All entrants acknowledge that their entries may be used for further promotion of the competition. All entrants agree to be involved in promotional material and activities associated with the Competition.

Where appropriate, the TASICT may discuss further development of an application with the entrant after the competition.

Competition Organisers
This competition is being run on in conjunction with TASICT, the peak industry body for the technology industry in Tasmania and the Office of the Premier of Tasmania, David Bartlett.

Intellectual property and licensing
Each Entrant warrants that any intellectual property embodied in or used by the Entrant in connection with this Competition is the sole property of the Entrant or the Entrant is legally entitled to use that intellectual property for the purposes of the Competition.

Each Entrant indemnifies the State, and all officers, servants and agents of the State against any action, claim, suit or demand, including a claim, suit or demand for or liability to pay compensation or damages and costs or expenses arising out of or in respect of any breach of any third party’s intellectual property rights.

Disclaimer
TASICT and the Tasmanian Government is not liable for any costs occurred by the entrants due to their participation in the competition.